MANDATORY DOCUMENTS

DRIVER'S LICENSE

The main driver's original full license (physical driving license) held for a minimum of 1 year(s) with no major endorsements. UK license holders must present a photocard license.

For this rental, for citizens outside the EU an international drivers licence will be required regardless of the alphabet.

DEPOSIT AND PAYMENT CARD INFORMATION

ACCEPTED American Express, Diners Club, Discover Card, MasterCard (not debit or prepaid), Visa (not prepaid).

NOT ACCEPTED: No other payment types will be accepted.

Virtual payment cards are not accepted

A valid credit card in the first name and surname (no abbreviations) of the lead driver must be presented at the rental desk in order to pre-authorise/charge a deposit. Please be prepared to provide the PIN number of the credit card(s) presented as suppliers could require this to proceed with the rental contract.

In the event that you fail to present a valid credit card, there is a lack of sufficient funds available on the credit card or the credit card is not in the lead driver's name, the car rental agent may refuse to release the vehicle. In these instances, no funds paid will be reimbursed.

FORM(S) OF ID

A valid photo ID (passport or national ID).

VOUCHER

A digital version of your car rental voucher must be produced upon arrival at the rental desk. Failure to present the voucher means the car rental company may charge you at the local rates. Please note: We are not responsible for overcharges on rentals where the voucher was not presented to the car rental company on collection of the vehicle. If you do not present the required documents, the documentation is not valid or you do not have enough funds on your credit card, the car rental company may refuse to release the vehicle and no funds will be reimbursed.

Please note, most car rental providers only accept credit cards in the main driver's name for the deposit. Please check with the car rental supplier to confirm which payment methods are accepted.

If you do not present any of the documents listed above, the documentation is not valid or you do not have enough funds on your credit card, the car rental agency may refuse to release the vehicle and no funds will be reimbursed to you.

Your rental does not include Theft or Damage cover. This is a standard requirement when renting a vehicle, otherwise you can be held liable for the full value of the vehicle in case of damage or theft. Please obtain proof from your credit card provider that this cover is included on your card and extends to the country of rental. LDW cover can be purchased directly at the rental desk. Please note that you will be required to leave a deposit at the start of your rental.

The Excess Liability is the amount determined by the car rental supplier which you can be held liable for in case of damage/theft of the vehicle. Damage to or loss of tires, windscreens, glass and undercarriage may not be covered by the CDW. Please check with the rental agent at the desk.

If you purchase the Excess Reimbursement Insurance from a third party, the main driver will be required to present their credit card at the rental desk in order for the car rental agent to authorize the deposit.

✖ Toll roads and border tolls, parking, and traffic violation related fees

Costs vary

All additional costs will be the responsibility of the driver

The information provided in this voucher is accurate at the time of the booking. However, any modification of the booking by the customer at the rental desk may result in changes to such items as damage waiver liability, theft waiver liability and excess amount. If modifications are made to the booking at the rental desk, the terms and conditions provided to you then shall prevail over this voucher.

VAT invoice requests: If you need a VAT invoice please ask for this when collecting car or in the case of your rental being finished, contact the supplier directly. We cannot provide this on their behalf.

Travel Restrictions

Vehicles rented in the United States can be driven in any state in the United States. Vehicles may not be driven into Mexico. Vehicles rented in the United States can be driven into Canada, with the exception of 12 or 15 passenger vans, but must be returned to the United States unless Renter has pre-arranged with Provider to drop the vehicle off at one of Provider's approved locations in Canada whereby a transborder fee may apply.

If travelling to Miami port: There is a shuttle bus at the port that take the customers to the airport location. The shuttle runs to time the arrival of arriving and departing cruise ships

In some locations, including but not limited to offices in Arizona, California, Georgia, New Mexico, Nevada, and Texas, customers may be asked to provide additional valid government-issued documentation.

Expert advice to make your journey go smoothly

Always ask for directions to the nearest gasoline station to the rental drop-off location. Keep your fuel sales slip as proof of refueling.

Take time to familiarize yourself with the vehicle controls before leaving the parking area

Fully inspect the vehicle for signs of damage and report them to the rental desk before leaving the parking area

Ask for a map at the car rental desk

When visiting a location for the first time, always choose a safe parking spot like a supervised parking lot
